

THE CELESTE CARR STUDY ABROAD SCHOLARSHIP

What is it?

The Maryland Foreign Language Association has established the Celeste Carr Study Abroad Scholarship in honor of a former, Maryland leader in World Languages and ESOL at the state, regional, and national levels. She was involved in numerous initiatives throughout the region and an active member of NECTFL and ACTFL, as well as other organizations promoting the study of world languages. Throughout her career, Dr. Carr held a keen interest in study and travel abroad, and encouraged others in the field to engage in similar pursuits. In keeping with this spirit, the award offers financial support of $1,000 to a world language teacher who wishes to participate in a study abroad.

Who may apply?

Maryland educators who

- are current members of MFLA, and
- teach world languages at the elementary, middle, high, or post-secondary level, and
- have identified an accredited program of study abroad in which to participate.

Priority will be given to candidates who have not had a previous study abroad experience.

What is the application procedure?

- A curriculum vitae
- A list of prior study abroad and/or travel experiences
- Information about the study abroad program under consideration (name, dates, content, location academic credit available, and expenses)

- An essay in English by the applicant of at least 250 words describing how this experience will enhance and invigorate his or her teaching, benefit students, and benefit other teachers in the profession, in general and in Maryland, in particular. Be as specific and concrete as possible.

What funding is included?
